The AMEB Award

There is more to being an artist than practising an instrument and taking an exam. People contribute to the performing arts in many different ways.

The AMEB Award acknowledges and supports the efforts of developing musicians, dancers, actors, teachers and creatives.

The program is an opportunity for all developing artists to showcase their commitment and contributions to their chosen performing arts discipline.

The why

By supporting participants to stretch beyond practice and performance, the AMEB Award offers a different perspective.

For participants, the AMEB Award:

- expands their creative practice
- grows their creative community
- rewards them for their efforts
- celebrates their successes
- boosts their CV

For teachers and schools, the AMEB Award:

- nurtures your school's performing arts community
- demonstrates your leadership within your school network
- highlights your students' achievements to parents, peers, and employers
- expand your students' understanding of music and performing arts career paths
