

SACES Corporate Membership

SACES offers a corporate membership program for private companies, public sector agencies and other organisations seeking access to economic research and insights.

As a corporate member, you contribute to informed economic debate in South Australia while supporting stronger economic analysis and more effective policy development.

Benefits for corporate members

- Receipt of SACES bi-annual briefing reports, which provide a detailed assessment of the situation and outlook for the South Australian and Australian economies, together with commentary on topical economic issues.
- Two places at bi-annual lunch sessions with a presentation of key themes from the briefing report and a discussion on a specific topic by an invited guest.
- The opportunity to network with key public and private sector decision makers.
- The opportunity to invite and host clients, business associates and colleagues at a high profile and relevant functions.
- Receipt of printed copies of SACES issues papers.
- Priority access to research and consulting services of SACES throughout the year.
- The opportunity for your organisation to sponsor one of the briefing luncheons*
- Tailored economic assessment for your organisation by SACES*
- Premium corporate membership gives you to access up to 10 hours of SACES staff time to discuss issues and/or carry out research tasks.
