

2.3 Limitations on the Use of Fixed-Term Contracts

The use of fixed-term contracts will be limited to the employment of a staff member engaged in work activity on terms that correspond with one (1) of the employment types described in this section. With the approval of their supervisor, a staff member may engage in additional casual work (as defined in clause 2.1.3) unrelated to, or identifiably separate from, their normal duties.

2.3.11 Disestablished area

- 2.3.11.1 Fixed-term employment may be offered to staff members in an identifiable work unit that is performing one (1) or more functions or teaching one (1) or more programs the provision of which will cease within a reasonably certain time, and a final decision has been made to disestablish part or all of the unit.
- 2.3.11.2 Fixed-term positions offered under this category will be for a period of no more than two (2) years and not less than one (1) year.
